Historical Society of Tennessee. The September meeting of the Historical Society of Tennessee was held at the Capitol on Tue-day afternoon, 7th inst. In the absence of the President and Vice President, W. A. EICHBAUM, Esq., was called to the chair. The Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary. Librarian, and several members were mresent.

Letters were read from Rev. J. Austin Merwick, of Paris, Ky., Hon. Jared Sparks, Cambridge, Mass., and Prof. A. D. Bache, Washington City.

A letter was read from the President of the Seciety, Col. A. W. PUTNAM, giving an account of a recent visit of himself, and several other members, to an ancient Indian Cemetery, on the banks of the Cumberland, seven or eight miles from Nashville, on the lands of David H. McGavock, Esq. The paper was listened to with much interest, and we hope to be able of the explorations of the party mentioned at an early day.

EDITORS PATRIOT: In your paper of the 6th you speak of a potato, grown on the farm of Mrs. McIver, that weigh d 31 lbs., doubting whether it could be beat. Why, gentlemen, you are behind the times; a week or ten days since I saw two potatoes, raised by Mr. Z. Payne, Edgefield, one weighing 4 lbs. 5 oz., and the other 4 lbs. 11 oz. This is no snake. fish, or potato story, but a matter of fact, of which there is abundant proof.

Our correspondent might have seen the above polatoes; we did not. We only speak of what comes under our own inspection. Can Mr. Payne beat the specimen from Mrs. Martin we note to-day?

Last evening at Wood's Theatre, while the play of the "Irish Emigrant" was being per-formed, an incident occurred which caused considerable excitement. In the second scene of the first act of this play, "Tom Bobolink." (Mr. Gossin.) and his wife "Polly," (Miss Vernon,) are seated at their dinner table discusring a mutton stewand their condition in life. To this family scene the "Irish Emigrant," (Mr. John Drew.) enters, and after some bantering from Tom, he receives something to eat from Polly. Miss Vernon filled a bowl with ous piece of bread to Mr. Drew.

He seized Miss Vernon's arm and was in turn seized by Mr. Gossin, who supported him while Miss Vernon brought a chair into which be Miss Vernon hurried off to the side for water, and when she returned, Mr. Gossin said to the audience: "Mr. Drew has fainted, and we must drop the curtain." Up to this time the audience had supposed Mr. Drew's faintng a good stroke of acting; and were dewith the fidelity with which he had itated the effects of kindness and the sight of food upon a neglected and hungry man. The curtain was raised in ten or fifteen minites, and Mr. Drew appeared. He was recived with hearty applause, which he acknowledged by thanking them for their kindess. Two or three gentlemen of the audince, who went behind the scenes when the curtain was dropped, found Mr. Drew pros-rate, with Miss Vernon and Mr. Gossin and the rest of the company chaffling his hands, LANCASTER C. H., S. C., May, 1856, C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia:- Dear Sir:-1 have been afflicted with Dyspepsia for a number of cars, and until three years since I could find nothing which would afford me relief. Fortunately, for me, heard of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, and thought would try them, not however, with much faith that should be benefitted by their use.

To my surprise I found that on taking a few doses I was relieved of the pain in my side and chest, my a petite became good, I gained strength, and in fact fel stronger and in better health than I had for a long time. I do not allow myself to be out of the Bitters if I can obtain them, for nothing else does me any good. I am willing at all times and ready to state my case to any one who may wish to know the full particulars and shall with pleasure recommend them to all who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, for I believe if any thing will give them relief they beneficial results, and I have no doubt you could get discount. my certain knowledge quite a number have been very much benefitted by the use of your medicine. I almost forgot to mention that my daughter, about six years of age, was cared of Jaundice by Hooffend's HOLLAND BITTERS German Bitters. I think best to mention his, as I have never known them used in any other case of the kind. Respectfully yours,
